WORK EXPERIENCE

WEB DEVELOPER
CTR Group | April 2022 - Present

- In this role I research, design wireframes/mockups and create prototypes for each of our projects. As well as doing the frontend development and organizing the training and release of each of the projects.

- I also manage the projects within our IT department, ensuring that timelines are followed and projects are delivered to the specification required. This includes facilitating development meetings, planning weekly sprints, presenting project briefs and designs to stakeholders, and ensuring all projects are tested and that users are trained before the project is signed off and released.
