Michelle Percy

UX/UI Designer

I'm passionate about designing intuitive and user-friendly interfaces. As a UX/UI designer, I specialize in creating digital experiences that seamlessly blend functionality and aesthetics. With a solid background in front-end development, I'm adept at turning design concepts into fully functional web applications.

Experience

January 2022 - Present
CTR Group | Uttoxeter, United Kingdom
UX/UI Designer

- My responsibilities include gathering requirements, research, designing wireframes/mockups and creating prototypes for each of our projects.
- Frontend development and design, as well as organizing the training and release of each of the projects.
- Managing the projects within our IT department, ensuring that timelines are followed and projects are delivered to the specification required. This includes facilitating development meetings, planning weekly sprints, presenting project briefs and designs to stakeholders, and ensuring all projects are tested and that users are trained before the project is signed off and released.
